ED. BAILEY'S TRIAL

For the Robbery of the St. Mary's Postoffice was Started.

THE MAIN PROSECUTING WITNESS

Is Frank Bailey, a Brother of the Accused Man—The Case will be on at To-day's Session and May Continue Several Days—Two "Oleo" Cases Decided Yesterday—Both Men were Fined.

In the United States court yesterday, outside of the interesting Bailey case for the robbery of the St. Mary's post-office, there were but two others. A merchant of Wheeling, was found guilty of a technical violation of the internal revenue laws regarding the sale of butterine and was fined $50. Joseph Underwood, also of Wheeling, first pled not guilty of a similar violation. In the trial it developed that the collector of internal revenue has ruled that on one license to sell butterine the dealer can sell at two stands, which is contrary to the law. As the violation by Underwood was technical he was fined $50.

In the afternoon the case of the United States against Edward Bailey, one of the Shamblin-Bailey gang that robbed the postoffice at St. Mary's some time ago, was opened. Hon. G. W. Atkinson, Mr. Flick and Mr. J. W. Collett, the latter of Newport, Ohio, represented Bailey's interests. District Attorney Watts and Assistant Walker conducted the prosecution.

The first witness examined was the postmaster, Mr. J. M. Wells, who testified that on the night of October 27, 1893, the office was robbed, the booty secured being as follows: Stamps to the value of $102.70, $2 in cash, one box of cigars and a set of false teeth. He also said that a number of letters were torn open and left behind.

Young Frank Bailey, eighteen years of age, was the next witness who testified for the prosecution. He said that the robbery was by Zeke Shamblin, James Pryor, John Broy and Ed Bailey, besides himself. To District Attorney Watts he told his story in detail. The quintette had started from Shamblin's shanty boat, above St. Mary's, about 11 o'clock, and, upon arriving at the scene of the crime, had entered the building through a side window. The witness and Broy had stayed outside to watch while the others did the job. Afterwards they had gone to Newton Ogden's store, where they got three pairs of pants.

On cross examination by Mr. Atkinson the boy stuck to the story he had just told, although he was compelled to admit that in a former trial of the case in Parkersburg he had perjured himself. He explained this by the statement that he had then said that Ed Bailey and Shamblin were not implicated for the reason that they had threatened to kill him unless he did as they told him. He said these two had agreed to "share up" with him, but he never saw anything of the booty, and thought they had not treated him right. Mr.

Atkinson conducted a very skillful cross-examination. At its conclusion court adjourned until this morning at 9 o'clock, when consideration of the case will be resumed.

The INTELLIGENCER learns from Mr. O. R. Wood that there is no truth whatever in the report that the Wheeling & Lake Erie and Pittsburgh Coal Company has made an assignment. The company had shut down its mines at Lauriston, Dillonvale and Long Run for a short time, and this is all there is in it.
